

Manual-VII: Constitution of Governing Bodies & Public Representations

The Particulars of any arrangement that exists for consultation with, or representation by, the member of the public in relation to the formulation of policies or implementation thereof.

Employees

The public representation in relation to formulation of policies and implementation thereof are through:

Board of Governors

The Board comprises of the following members, namely:

- The Chairman: an eminent Technologist / Engineer / Scientist / Industrialist (Medium and large scale industry) to be nominated by Government of India.
- Two members representing the Ministry of Human Resource Development, Government of India including one looking after financial matters.
- Five Directors of Technical Education (three from regional states and two from outside the region).
- Two Industrialists/technical professionals to be nominated by Government of India.
- One representative of the University to which the Institute is affiliated, not below the rank of a Professor.
- One representative of the AICTE to be nominated by the AICTE, not below the rank of an adviser.
- One member of faculty to be nominated by the Director.
- (Director of the Institute – ex officio Member Secretary.