RECRUITMENT AND SERVICE RULES

1.0 General

- 1.1 (i) These rules shall be called "The Technical Teachers Training Institute, Madras Recruitment and Service Rules".
- (ii) They shall be deemed to have come into force from 01.07.1966.
- 1.2 Except when otherwise provided for either expressly or by implication, these rules shall apply to every person in the whole time employment of the Technical Teachers Training Institute, Madras Society other than the person so employed under the contingent establishments.
- 1.3 Where the Board is satisfied that the operation of any rule under these "Service Rules" causes undue hardship in any particular case, the Board may dispense with or relax the requirements of that Rule to such extent and subject to such conditions as it may consider necessary for dealing with the case in a just and equitable manner.
- 1.4 The Board reserves to itself the powers to modify these rules as may, from time to time, seem expedient, and to interpret them in case of any doubt that may arise.
- 1.5 Definitions
- (a) "Board" means "Board of Governors" of The Technical Teachers Training Institute, Madras.
- (b) "Institute" means "The Technical Teachers Training Institute, Madras".
- (c) "Principal" means "The Principal of the Technical Teachers Training Institute, Madras".
- (d) "Society" means 'The Technical Teachers Training Institute, Madras Society'.
- (e) 'Chairman' means, 'The Chairman, Board of Governors of TTTI, Madras'.¹

2.0 Appointments

- 2.1 All vacancies in Group B, C & D categories shall be advertised in Newspapers and qualified internal candidates will be considered along with those who respond to open advertisement in the final selection of candidates for a particular post.³²

Provided that in the case of non-teaching posts excepting the Senior Administrative Officer, Accounts Officer, Senior and Junior Auditors, the method of appointment be by promotion on the basis of seniority, merit and fitness for the post. The post of Accounts Officer, Senior and Junior Auditors will be filled on deputation basis from a panel of names sponsored by the Comptroller and Auditor General on the four AGs offices located in the southern region.²

- 2.2 Selections to the posts in the Institute shall be made by appropriate Committees constituted by the Board/Principal.

- 2.3 The Board shall be the appointing authority in respect of posts carrying a scale of pay, the maximum of which is Rs.13,500/- and above coming under Group 'A'.

The Principal shall be the appointing authority in respect of posts carrying a scale of pay, the maximum of which is below Rs.13,500/- coming under Group 'B', 'C' and 'D'.³

- 2.4 The members of the staff of the Institute shall be grouped under 'vacation' and 'non-vacation'.

Non-vacation Principal, Training and Placement Officer, Administrative and other staff;

Vacation Professors, Assistant Professors and Lecturers (including part-time and visiting Lecturers) excepting the teaching staff of C D Centre, Continuing Education and Extension Centres.⁴

3.0 Terms and Conditions of Service

- 3.1 Every appointment shall be subject to the condition that the appointee is certified as being in sound health and physically fit for service in India by a Medical Officer, nominated by the Board, and the Board shall, in exceptional cases, waive this condition.

- 3.2 All appointments shall take effect from the date on which the appointee reports himself for duty at the Institute.

- 3.3 All appointments to the teaching posts ordinarily shall be made on probation for a period of two years after which period, the appointee, if confirmed, shall continue to hold the Office till he attains the age of superannuation which shall be 62 years and beyond which the Board may re-employ up to the age of 65 years in deserving cases.^{5 & 33}

(considering the practice prevailing in educational institutions in continuing the services of teachers retiring after the commencement of academic year up to the end of academic session/year, the Board at its 60th meeting held on 02 03 90 resolved to authorize the Principal to re-employ members of teaching staff up to the end of academic session/year in deserving cases, subject to report to the Board, provided an application to this effect is made by a member of the teaching staff retiring during the course of academic session/year. The Board further resolved that applications made by the staff members for re-employment beyond the academic session/year after superannuation, be placed before the Chairman, Board of Governors in deserving cases including establishment of the need for such a re-employment.)

The post or service in the cadres of Lecturers, Assistant Professors, Professors and Principal coming under AICTE scales of pay carry the benefit for addition to the service qualifying for superannuation as contained in Explanation III of Sub Rule (XIX) of Rule 4 of the Retirement Benefit Rules, provided extension of this benefit is specifically stated in the advertisement for recruitment to such service or post.⁶

- 3.4 All appointments to non-teaching posts ordinarily shall be made on probation for a period of two* years after which period the appointee, if confirmed, shall continue to hold office till he attains the age of 60 years.³⁴
- 3.5 It shall be permissible for the Board to terminate the services of any member of the staff without notice and without any cause assigned during the period of probation.
- 3.6 Increments accruing during period of probation will be allowed in the normal course, unless the services of the employee on probation are found not satisfactory and there is a clear intention to extend probation. This Rule will come into operation with retrospective effect covering all past cases.⁹
- 3.7 It shall always be permissible for the Board to terminate the services of any member of the staff by three months' notice (or three months' pay in lieu thereof) if on medical grounds the retention of such member of the staff in service is considered undesirable. The decision of the Board in this behalf shall be final and binding on every member of the staff.

- 3.8 It shall also be permissible for the Board to terminate the services of any permanent member of the staff on grounds of retrenchment or economy by giving to the person concerned six months' notice in writing.
- 3.9 A permanent member of the staff may terminate his engagement by giving to the appointing authority three months notice or three months pay plus allowances in lieu thereof. In respect of temporary employees, the period of notice shall be one month or one month's pay plus allowances in lieu thereof.¹⁰
- 3.10 The pay and allowances of the staff of the Institute shall be determined by the Board in pay-scales approved by the Board.
- 3.11 A member of the staff of the Institute shall devote his whole time to the service of the Institute and shall not engage, directly or indirectly, in any trade or business or in private tuition or any other work which may interfere with the proper discharge of his/her duties. The prohibition herein contained shall not apply to the work undertaken in connection with the examinations of Universities, Institutes or Public Service Commissions or consultancy practice undertaken in accordance with the rules laid down by the Board from time to time.
- 3.12 Notwithstanding any thing contained in the Staff Service Regulations, the appropriate authority, if it is of the opinion that it is in the public interest to do so, shall have the absolute right to retire any employee, by giving him notice of not less than three months in writing or three months pay and allowances in lieu of such action without assigning any reason, after the said employee has attained the age of 50 years or has completed 30 years of service, whichever is earlier.

Provided further that the employees shall also have the right to retire, by giving notice to the appropriate authority of not less than three months in writing or by forfeiting three months' pay and allowances in lieu of such notice, after attaining the age of 50 years or has completed 30 years of service, whichever is earlier.¹¹

4.0 Officiating and Acting Appointments

- 4.1 A member of the staff of the Institute appointed to officiate in a higher post shall receive remuneration in accordance with rules applicable to employees of the Central Government in that behalf.
- 4.2 Ad hoc acting allowance may be given in exceptional circumstances with the previous approval of the Board.

- 4.3 No teaching posts shall be filled by promotion and that all the posts must be filled on the basis of merit as determined by the Staff Selection Committee. All the clear vacant posts should necessarily be advertised and selection made on All India basis purely on merit. Short-term vacancies should be brought to the notice of all the Principals of TTTIs and Directorates of Technical Education in the region and applications invited. On the basis of applications received, a duly constituted Staff Selection Committee should select the faculty on the basis of merit only.¹²

5.0 Penalties and Appeals

- 5.1 The Principal may place a member of the staff appointed by him under suspension,
- (a) where a disciplinary proceeding against him is contemplated or is pending; or
 - (b) where in the opinion of the authority aforesaid he has engaged himself in activities prejudicial to the interest and security of the Institute; or
 - (c) where a case against him in respect of any criminal offence is under investigation, inquiry or trial.

The Institute may appoint persons as:

- Inquiring Officers to inquire into the charges framed against Faculty and Group 'A' Officers under Rule 14 of the CCS (CC & A) Rules, 1965 from amongst retired senior officers such as Retired District Judges, Retired Magistrates and Retired Directors of Technical Education located in the southern region;
- Inquiring Officers to inquire into the charges framed in respect of Group B, C & D employees from amongst the Retired Officers of the rank of Assistant Director of Technical Education and above who have retired from Government services;
- Presenting Officers from amongst the retired officers who were in the pay scale of Rs.5500-9000 and who were in Government service.³⁵

If, as a result of the Disciplinary proceedings the charge is held proved, the Principal may at his discretion inflict any of the following penalties:

- i) Censure
- ii) Fine (in respect of Class IV employees)
- iii) Withholding of increments
- iv) Reduction in rank
- v) Removal from service.

- 5.2 If the Principal having regard to its findings on all or any of the articles of charge and on the basis of the evidence adduced during the enquiry is of the opinion that any of the penalties specified under Sub-Rule (1) of Rule 5 should be imposed on the member of the staff, he shall make an order imposing such penalty and it shall not be necessary to give the staff member any opportunity of making representation on the penalty proposed to be imposed.
- 5.3 Provided further no such Disciplinary Proceedings as aforesaid shall be necessary if reduction in rank or dismissal is imposed on the grounds of conviction by a Criminal Court.
- 5.4 A member of the staff aggrieved by any order under Sub Rule (1) of Rule 5, passed by the Principal against him shall be entitled to prefer an appeal to the Board against the order and the decision of the Board shall be final.
- 5.5 The Board may place a member of staff appointed by it under suspension.
- (a) where a disciplinary proceeding against him is contemplated or is pending; or
 - (b) where in the opinion of the authority aforesaid he has engaged himself in activities prejudicial to the interest and security of the Institute; or
 - (c) where a case against him in respect of any criminal offence is under investigation, inquiry or trial.
- 5.6 If as a result of the Disciplinary Proceedings, the charge held proved, the Board may at its discretion inflict any of the following penalties:
- i) Censure
 - ii) Withholding of increments
 - iii) Reduction in rank
 - iv) Removal from service
- 5.7 If the Board having regard to its findings on all or any of the articles of charge and on the basis of evidence adduced during the enquiry is of the opinion that any of the penalties specified under sub-rule (6) of Rule 5 should be imposed on the member of the staff, it shall make an order imposing such penalty and it shall not be necessary to give the staff member any opportunity of making representation on the penalty proposed to be imposed.
- 5.8 Provided further that no such Disciplinary Proceedings as aforesaid shall be necessary if reduction in rank or dismissal is imposed on the grounds of conviction by a criminal court.

- 5.9 The Board may also terminate the services of any member of the staff on grounds of inefficiency after giving the person concerned a reasonable opportunity of showing cause against the action proposed to be taken against him.¹³

6.0 Provident Fund

A Compulsory Contributory Provident Fund shall be constituted for such of the employees or class of employees of the Institute as prescribed by the Provident Fund rules of this Institute (Schedule-A). The Board shall, however, from time to time amend, alter or vary the same. The rate of contribution to be made by the Institute to the Fund shall be 8 per cent, of the salary of the subscriber, who shall contribute a like percentage of his salary to the Fund.

This shall apply to such employees who joined the Institute prior to 01 10 1972 and who opted to remain under this scheme.¹⁴

SCHEDULE A

CONTRIBUTORY PROVIDENT FUND OF THE
TECHNICAL TEACHERS TRAINING INSTITUTE, CHENNAI

1. (1) The provisions contained in this Schedule shall apply to:
 - a) every employee of the Institute who is permanently appointed either for the first time or re-appointed as a permanent employee.
 - b) persons appointed on contract, the terms whereof make such persons eligible for contributing to the Fund.
 - c) re-employed pensioners subject to the conditions prescribed by the Government of India from time to time. ¹

Provided that no employee of the Institute shall be entitled to the benefits of the Fund, whose services in the Institute entitle him to a pension and gratuity, on whose account the Institute contributes towards pension or who has been appointed by the Institute on a consolidated salary or on special terms which exclude the benefits of this Fund.

- (2) A person appointed on probation against a substantive vacancy shall be entitled to subscribe to the fund from the date of his appointment ²

Arrears of subscriptions in such cases may be paid in not more than 12 monthly instalments for each year of service. The Institute's Contribution is to be credited to the account of the subscriber (at the end of each financial year to the extent of his own subscription during the year subject to final adjustment after the arrears are realised in full). ³

- (3) If an employee admitted to the benefit of the Fund was previously a subscriber to any Government non-contributory Provident Fund, the amount of his subscriptions in the non-Contributory Provident Fund, shall be transferred to his credit in the Fund.
 - (4) Every employee of the Institute entitled to the benefits of the Fund shall be required to sign a written declaration in the Form set forth in Appendix I that he has read this schedule and agreed to abide by the provisions contained in it.
2. In this schedule, unless the context otherwise requires –
 - i) 'Accounts Officer' means the Accounts Officer of the Institute;

- ii) 'Audit Officer' means the (Internal) Audit of the Institute;
- iii) 'emoluments' means pay including dearness pay, if any, leave salary, or subsistence grant and includes any remuneration of the nature of pay (including dearness pay, if any) received in respect of foreign service;
- iv) 'family' means –
 - a) in the case of a male subscriber, the wife or wives and children of a subscriber, and the widow, or widows and children of a deceased son of the subscriber;

Provided that, if a subscriber proves that his wife has been judicially separated from him or has ceased under the customary law of the community to which she belongs to be entitled to maintenance she shall henceforth be deemed to be no longer a member of the subscriber's family in matters to which this schedule relates, unless the subscriber subsequently indicates by express notification in writing to the Principal that she shall continue to be so regarded;

- b) in the case of a female subscriber, the husband & children of the subscriber, and the widow or widows and children of a deceased son of the subscriber;

Provided that if a subscriber by notification in writing to the Principal expresses her desire to exclude her husband from her family, the husband shall henceforth be deemed to be no longer a member of the subscriber's family in matters to which this schedule relates, unless the subscriber subsequently cancels formally in writing her notification excluding him.

NOTE I – Children means legitimate children.

NOTE II - An adopted child shall be considered to be a child when the Principal, or if any doubt arises in the mind of the Principal, the Law Officer of the Institute, is satisfied that under the personal law of the subscriber, adoption is legally recognised as conferring the status of a natural child, but in this case only.

- v) 'foreign service' means service in which an employee of the Institute receives his substantive pay with the sanction of the Board from any source other than the fund of the Institute;
- vi) 'Fund' means the Contributory Provident Fund of the Institute;

- vii) 'Leave' means any variety of leave as provided in the Revised Leave Rules (1933) of the Government of India.
- viii) 'Pay' means the amount drawn monthly by an employee of the Institute as
 - (i) the pay, other than special pay or pay granted in view of his personal qualification, which has been sanctioned for a post held by him substantively or in an officiating capacity;
 - (ii) special pay and personal pay, and
 - (iii) any other remuneration which may be specially classed as pay by the Board;
- ix) 'Subscription' means the amount paid by the subscriber and 'Contribution' means the amount contributed by the Institute;
- x) 'Year' means a financial year.

CONSTITUTION AND MANAGEMENT OF THE FUND

3. (1) The Fund, which shall be maintained in rupees, shall be constituted with subscriptions paid by the subscribers and contributions made by the Institute and shall include accrued interest or profit realised on investment of any part thereof.
- (2) The management of the Fund is vested in the Board. Subject to the control and direction of the Board, the Principal shall administer the fund for and on behalf of the Board.
- (3) The Fund shall be deposited, in the name of the Fund, with the I O B., Madras. The deposits shall be made as soon as possible after the monthly accounts are closed.
- (4) The Institute may, from time to time invest such part of the Fund, as may be considered expedient, in the National Plan Savings Certificate, and other investments covered by section 20 of the Indian Trusts Act 1882 (2 of 1882) and/or in Fixed Deposit with the Indian overseas Bank, Madras.⁴

All investments and securities shall be held in the name of the Institute.

NOMINATION

4. (1) A subscriber shall, at the time of joining the Fund, send to the Principal a nomination, conferring on one or more persons the right to receive the amount that may stand to his credit in the Fund, in the event of his death before that amount has become payable, or having become payable, has not been paid.

Provided that if, at the time of making the nomination the subscriber has a family, the nomination shall not be in favour of any person or persons other than the members of his family.

Provided further that the nomination made by the subscriber in respect of any other Provident Fund to which he was subscribing before joining the Fund shall, if the amount to his credit in such other fund has been transferred to his credit in this fund, be deemed to be a nomination duly made under this rule until he makes a nomination in accordance with the sub-para.

NOTE: In this rule, unless the context otherwise requires, 'person' or 'persons' shall include a company or Association or body of individuals, whether incorporated or not.⁵

(2) If a subscriber nominates more than one person under sub-para (1), he shall specify in the nomination the amount or share payable to each of the nominees in such a manner as to cover the whole of the amount that may stand to his credit in the Fund at any time.

(3) Every nomination shall be in such one of the Forms set forth in Appendix II as is appropriate in the circumstances.

(4) A subscriber may, at any time, cancel his nomination by sending a notice in writing to the Principal.

Provided that the subscriber shall along with such notice send a fresh nomination made in accordance with the provisions of this para.

(5) A subscriber may provide in a nomination-

- (a) in respect of any specified nominee that in the event of his nominee predeceasing the subscriber, the right conferred upon that nominee shall pass to such other person as maybe specified in the nomination.

Provided such other person or persons shall, if the subscriber has other members of his family, be such other member or members. Where the subscriber confers such a right on more than one person under this clause, he shall specify the amount or share payable to each of such persons in such a manner as to cover the whole of the amount payable to the nominee.

- (b) that the nominations shall become invalid in the event of the happening of a contingency specified therein; provided that if at the time of making nomination the subscriber has no family, he shall provide in the nomination that it shall become invalid in the event of his subsequently acquiring a family.

Provided further that if at the time of making the nomination the subscriber has only one member of the family, he shall provide in the nomination that the right conferred upon the alternate nominee under clause (a) shall become invalid in the event of his subsequently acquiring other member or members in his family.

(6) Immediately on the death of a nominee in respect of whom no special provision has been made in the nomination under clause (a) of sub-para (5) or on the occurrence of any event by reason of which the nomination becomes invalid in pursuance of clause (b) of sub-para (5) or the proviso thereto, the subscriber shall send to the Principal, a notice in writing cancelling the nomination together with a fresh nomination made in accordance with the provisions of this para.

(7) Every nomination made and every notice of cancellation given by a subscriber shall, to the extent that it is valid, take effect, on the date on which it is received by the institute

(8) An up-to-date Register shall be maintained by the Institute to record all nominations.

SUBSCRIBER'S ACCOUNTS

5. An account shall be opened in the name of each subscriber in the Form set forth in Appendix III, in which shall be shown-

- (i) the subscriber's subscriptions;
- (ii) contributions made under para 9 by the Institute to his account;
- (iii) interest, as provided by para 10, on subscriptions;
- (iv) interest, as provided by para 10, on contributions; and
- (v) advance and withdrawals from his account.

CONDITIONS AND RATES OF SUBSCRIPTIONS

6. (1) Every subscriber shall subscribe monthly to the Fund when on duty or on Foreign service but not during a period of suspension. Provided that a subscriber on Re-instatement after the period passed under suspension shall be allowed the option of paying in one sum or in instalments, any sum not exceeding the maximum amount of arrears of subscription permissible for that period.

(2) A subscriber may at his option not subscribe during leave other than 'Leave on average pay' or Earned Leave of less than 30 days duration by sending a notice in writing to the Principal before or soon after proceeding on leave.

Failure to make due and timely intimation shall be deemed to constitute an election to subscriber.

The option of subscriber intimated under this sub-para shall be final.

(3) A subscriber who has, under para 18 withdrawn the amount of subscriptions and interest thereon, shall not subscribe to the Fund after such withdrawal, unless he returns to duty.

7. (1) The amount of subscription shall be fixed, subject to the following conditions:-

(a) It shall be expressed in whole rupees (50 paise and above counting as the next higher rupee).

(b) It may be any sum, not less than $8\frac{1}{3}$ per cent of the emoluments.

(2) For the purposes of clause (b) of sub-para (1) the emoluments of a subscriber shall be-

(a) in the case of a subscriber who was in permanent service of the Institute on the 31st March of the preceding year, the emoluments to which he was entitled on that date;

(b) in the case of a subscriber who was not in permanent service of the Institute on the 31st March of the preceding year, the emoluments to which he was entitled on the first day of his permanent service.

(3) The amount of subscription so fixed may be enhanced or reduced only once during the course of a year. Provided that if a subscriber is on duty for a part of a month and on leave for the remainder of the month and if he has elected not to subscribe during the leave the amount of subscription payable shall be proportionate to the number of days spent on duty in the month.

(4) When a subscriber is temporarily transferred to foreign service (elsewhere) or sent out of India, he shall remain, subject to the provisions contained in this Schedule in the same manner as if he were not so transferred or sent out.

REALISATION OF SUBSCRIPTIONS

8. (1) When emoluments are drawn from the Funds of the Institute, recovery of subscriptions on account of these emoluments and of the principal and interest of advance shall be made from the emoluments themselves.

(2) When emoluments are drawn from any other source, the subscriber shall forward his dues monthly to the Institute.

CONTRIBUTION BY THE INSTITUTE

9. (1) The Institute shall, with effect from the 31st March of each year, make a contribution to the account of each subscriber.

Provided that if a subscriber quits the service or dies during a year, contribution shall be credited to his account for the period between the close of the preceding year and the date of the casualty.

Provided further that no contribution shall be payable in respect of any period for which the subscriber is permitted under this Schedule not to, or does not, subscribe to the Fund.

(2) The contribution shall be a sum representing $8\frac{1}{3}$ per cent of the emoluments of the subscriber, drawn on duty during the year or for a period in the year as the case may be.

(3) Should a subscriber elect to subscribe during leave, his leave salary shall, for the purpose of this rule, be deemed to be emoluments drawn on duty.

(4) The amount of any contribution payable in respect of a period of foreign service shall, unless it is recovered from the employer, be recovered by the Institute from the subscriber.

(5) The amount of contribution payable shall be rounded to the nearest whole rupee (50 paise and above counting as the next higher rupee).

INTEREST

10. (1) The Institute shall pay to the credit of the account of a subscriber interest at such rate as the Central Government may, from time to time, prescribe in the case of their employees.

(2) Interest shall be credited with effect from the 31st March of each year in the following manner:

- (i) on the amount at the credit of the subscriber on the 31st March of the preceding year, less any sums withdrawn during the current year - interest for 12 months;
- (ii) on sums withdrawn during the current year - interest from the 1st April of the current year up to the last day of the month preceding the month of withdrawal;
- (iii) on all sums credited to the subscriber's account after the 31st March of the preceding year - interest from the date of deposit up to the 31st March of the current year;
- (iv) the total amount of interest shall be rounded to the nearest rupee in the manner provided in sub-para (5) of para 9.

Provided that when the amount standing at the credit of a subscriber has become payable, interest shall thereupon be credited under this sub-para in respect only of the period from the beginning of the current year or from the date of credit as the case may be up to the date on which the amount standing at the credit of the subscriber becomes payable.

(3) For the purpose of this para the date of credit shall be deemed to be first day of the month in which it is credited.

Provided that where there has been a delay in the drawal of pay or leave salary and allowance of a subscriber and consequently in the recovery of his subscription towards the Fund, the interest on such subscriptions shall be payable from the month in which the pay or leave salary of the subscriber was due, irrespective of the month in which it was actually drawn.

(4) In all cases, interest will be paid in respect of balance at the credit of a subscriber up to the close of the month preceding that in which payment is made or up to the end of sixth month after the month in which such amount became payable whichever of these periods be less.

(5) Subject to the provisions of sub-para (4), no interest shall be paid in respect of any period after the date which the Principal has intimated to that person or his agent as the date on which he is prepared to make payments.

ADVANCE FROM THE FUND

11. A temporary advance may be granted to a subscriber from the amount standing to his credit in the Fund at the discretion of the authority specified in para 12, subject to the following conditions:-

- a) No advance shall be granted unless the sanctioning authority is satisfied that the applicant's pecuniary circumstances justify it, and that it will be expended on the following object or objects and not otherwise;
 - (i) to pay expenses in connection with the prolonged illness of the applicant or any person actually dependent on him/her;
 - (ii) to pay for the overseas passage for reasons of health, orducation of the applicant or any person actually dependent on him/her;
 - (ii) to pay obligatory expenses on a scale appropriate to the

- (iii) applicant's status in connection with marriages, funerals or ceremonies which by religion it is incumbent on him or her to perform;
 - b) An advance shall not, except for special reasons, exceed 3 month's pay, and shall in no case exceed the amount of subscription and interest thereon standing to the credit of the subscriber in the Fund.
 - c) An advance shall not, except for special reasons, be granted until atleast 12 months after the final repayment of all previous advances.⁶
 - d) The sanctioning authority shall record in writing the special reasons where advance is sanctioned for such reasons.
 - e) An application for temporary advance from the Fund shall be submitted in the Form set forth in Appendix IV.
- 12 1 A temporary advance from the Fund to the subscribers other than the Principal will be sanctioned by the Principal.
2. A temporary advance from the Fund to the Principal shall require the sanction of the Chairman.
- 13 (1) An advance shall be recovered from the subscriber in such no.of equal monthly instalments as the sanctioning authority may direct; but, such umber shall not be less than 12 unless the subscriber so elects, or in any case not more than 24 (twenty four).
- A subscriber may, at his option, make repayment in a smaller number of instalments than that prescribed. Each instalment shall be a number of whole rupees, the amount of the advance being raised or reduced, if necessary, to admit of the fixation of such instalments.
- (2) Recovery shall be made in the manner provided in para 8 for the realisation of subscription and shall commence on the first occasion after the advance is made on which the subscriber draws emoluments other than leave salary or subsistence grant, for a full month.
- Recovery shall not be made, except with the subscriber's consent while he is on leave or in receipt of subsistence grant and may be postponed by the sanctioning authority during the recovery of an advance of pay granted to the subscriber.

- (3) When an advance is sanctioned under sub-rule 11© before completing the final repayment of any previous advance, the balance of any previous advance not recovered shall be added to the advance so sanctioned and the instalments for recovery shall be fixed with reference to the consolidated advance.⁷
 - (4) Recoveries made under this rule shall be credited, as they are made, to the account of the subscriber in the Fund.⁸
- 14.
- (1) Withdrawals may be sanctioned by the competent authority mentioned in para 12 at any time after the completion of 29 years of service of a subscriber or within 5 years before the date of his retirement on superannuation, whichever is earlier, from the amount of subscriptions and interest thereon standing to the credit of the subscriber in the Fund, for one or more of the following purposes, namely:-
 - (a) Meeting the cost of higher education, including if necessary, the travelling expenses of any child of the subscriber actually dependent on him in the following cases, namely:-
 - (i) for education outside India for academic, technical, professional or vocational course beyond the High School stage, and
 - (ii) for any medical, engineering or other technical or specialised course in India beyond the High School stage, provided that the course of study is for not less than three years.
 - (b) Meeting the expenditure in connection with the marriage of the subscriber's sons or daughters and if he has no daughter, of any other female relation dependent on him.
 - (c) Meeting the expenses in connection with the illness, including where necessary, the travelling expenses, of the subscriber or any person actually dependent on him.
 - (d) Building or acquiring a suitable house for his residence including the cost of the site or repaying any outstanding amount on account of loan expressly taken for this purpose before the date of receipt of the application for withdrawal but not earlier than 12 months of that date, or reconstructing or making additions or alterations to a house already owned or acquired by a subscriber.

- (e) Purchasing a house site or repaying any outstanding amount on account of loan expressly taken for this purpose before the date of receipt of the application for the withdrawal but not earlier than 12 months of that date.
 - (f) For constructing a house on a site purchased utilising the sum withdrawn under clause (e).
- 2 The actual withdrawal from the Fund shall be made only on receipt of an authorisation from the Accounts officer who will arrange this as soon as the formal sanction of the sanctioning authority has been issued.
- 15 1 Any sum withdrawn by the subscriber at any one time for one or more of the purposes specified in para 14 from the amount standing to his/her credit in the Fund shall not ordinarily exceed one-half of the amount of subscriptions and interest thereon standing to the credit of the subscriber in the Fund or six months' pay whichever is less. The sanctioning authority may, however, sanction the withdrawal of an amount in excess of this limit upto three-fourth's of the amount of subscriptions and interest thereon standing to the credit of the subscriber having due regard to (i) the object for which the withdrawal is being made (ii) the status of the subscriber and (iii) the amount of subscription and interest thereon standing to the credit of the subscriber in the Fund.
- 2 A subscriber who has been permitted to withdraw money from the Fund under para 14 shall satisfy the sanctioning authority within a reasonable period as may be specified by that authority that the money has been utilised for the purpose for which it was withdrawn and if he/she fails to do so, the whole of the sum so withdrawn or so much thereof as has not been applied for the purpose for which it was withdrawn shall forthwith be repaid in one lump sum together with interest thereon at the rate determined under para 10 by the subscriber to the Fund and in default of such payment, it shall be ordered by the sanctioning authority to be recovered from his/her emoluments either in a lump sum or in such number or monthly instalments as may be determined by the institute.
- 16 A subscriber who has already drawn or may draw in future an advance under para 11 for any of the purpose specified in clause (a) (b) and (c) of sub-para (1) of para 14 may convert at his/her discretion by written request addressed to the Accounts Officer through the sanctioning authority the balance outstanding against it into a final withdrawal on his/her satisfying the condition laid down in paras 14 & 15.

CIRCUMSTANCES IN WHICH ACCUMULATION ARE PAYABLE

17. When a subscriber quits the service, the amount standing to his/her credit in the Fund, shall, subject to any deduction under para 20, become payable to him.

Provided that a subscriber, who has been dismissed from the service and is subsequently reinstated in the service, shall, if required to do so by the Institute, repay any amount paid to him from the Fund in pursuance of this para with interest thereon at the rate provided in para 10 in the manner provided in the proviso to para 18. The amount so repaid shall be credited to his account in the Fund, the part which represents his/her subscription and interest thereon and the part which represents the Institute contribution with interest thereon being accounted for in the manner provided in para 5.

18. When a subscriber-

- (a) has proceeded on leave preparatory to retirement or if he is employed in a vacation department, on leave preparatory to retirement combined with vacation, or
- (b) while on leave, has been permitted to retire or declared by competent medical authority to be unfit for further service, the amount of subscriptions and interest thereon standing to his/her credit in the Fund shall, upon application made by him/her in that behalf to the Principal become payable to the subscriber.

Provided that the subscriber, if he/she returns to duty, shall, if required to do so by the Institute, repay to the Fund, for credit to his/her account, the whole or part of any amount paid to him/her from the Fund in pursuance of this/her rule, with interest thereon at the rate provided in para 10, in cash or securities or partly in cash and partly in securities by instalments or otherwise, as the Institute may direct.

19. Subject to any deduction under para 20 on the death of a subscriber before the amount standing to his/her credit has become payable or where the amount has become payable before payment has been made.

- (i) When the subscriber leaves a family-

- (a) if a nomination made by the subscriber in accordance with the provisions of para 4 in favour of a member or members of his/her family subsists, the amount standing to his/her credit in the Fund or the part thereof to which the nomination relates, shall become payable to his/her nominee or nominees in the proportion specified in the nomination;

- (b) if no such nomination in favour of a member or members of the family of the subscriber subsists, or if such nomination relates only to a part of the amount standing to his/her credit in the Fund, the whole amount or the part thereof to which the nomination does not relate, as the case may be, shall, notwithstanding any nomination purporting to be in favour of any person or persons other than a member or members of his/her family, become payable to the members of his/her family in equal shares:

Provided that no share shall be payable to-

- (1) sons who have attained majority;
- (2) sons of a deceased son who have attained majority;
- (3) married daughters whose husbands are alive;
- (4) married daughters of a deceased son whose husbands are alive if there is any member of the family other than those specified in clauses (1), (2), (3) and (4):

Provided also that the widow or widows and the child or children of a deceased son shall receive between them in equal parts only the share which that son would have received if he had survived the subscriber and had been exempted from the provisions of clause (1) of the first proviso;

NOTES:

- (i) Any sum payable under these rules to a member of the family of a subscriber vests in such member under such-section (2) of section 3 of the Provident Fund Act, 1925.
- (ii) When the subscriber leaves no family if a nomination made by him/her in accordance with the provisions of para 4, in favour of any person or persons subsists, the amount standing to his/her credit in the Fund or the part thereof to which the nomination relates, shall become payable to his/her nominee or nominees in the proportion specified in the nomination.

NOTE:

When a nominee is dependent of the subscriber as defined in clause © of section 2 of the Provident Fund Act, 1925, the amount vests in such nominee under sub-section (2) of section 3 of that Act.

When the subscriber leaves no family and no nomination made by him/her in accordance with the provisions of para 4 subsists, or if such nomination relates only to part of the amount standing to his/her credit in the Fund, the relevant provisions of clause (b) and of sub-clause (ii) of clause (c) of sub-section (1) of section 4 of the Provident Funds Act, 1925 are applicable to the whole amount or the part thereof to which the nomination does not relate.

DEDUCTIONS

20. Subject to the conditions that no deduction may be made which reduces the credit by more than the amount of any contribution by the Institute with interest thereon credited under paras 9 and 10 before the amount standing to the credit of a subscriber in the Fund is paid out of the Fund, the Board may direct the deduction therefrom and payment to the Institute of-

- (a) any amount, if a subscriber has been dismissed from the service for grave misconduct:

Provided that, if the order of dismissal is subsequently cancelled, the amount so deducted shall, on his/her re-instatement in the service, be replaced at his/her credit in the Fund.

- (b) any amount, if a subscriber resigns his/her employment with the Institute within five years of the commencement thereof otherwise than by reason of superannuation or a declaration by competent medical authority that he is/she is unfit for further service;

- (c) any amount due under a liability incurred by the subscriber to the Institute.

- 21 (1) (a) When the amount standing to the credit of a subscriber in the Fund or the balance thereof after any deduction under para 20 becomes payable, it shall be the duty of the Principal, after satisfying him/herself when no such deduction has been directed under that para, that no deduction is to be made, to make the payment as provided in section 4 of the Provident Funds Act, 1925.

- (b) In the case of final payment to the Principal from the Contributory Provident Fund, the competent authority to sanction the payment shall be the Chairman, Board of Governors.
- (2) Any person who desires to claim payment under this/her para shall send a written application in that behalf to the Principal. Payment of amounts withdrawn shall be made in India only. The persons to whom the amounts are payable shall make their own arrangements to receive payment in India.

NOTE: When the amount standing to the credit of a subscriber has become payable under paras 17, 18 or 19 the Institute shall make arrangement for prompt payment of that portion of the amount standing to the credit of a subscriber in regard to which there is no dispute or doubt, the balance being adjusted as soon after as may be.

PROCEDURE

- 22. Accumulations in the Fund of which payment has not been taken within six months after they become payable under schedule shall be transferred to "Deposits" after the 31st March of the year and treated under the provisions relating to deposits.
- 23. When paying a subscription in India either by deduction from emoluments or in cash, a subscriber shall quote the number of his/her account in the Fund, which shall be communicated to him/her by the Accounts Officer. Any change in the number shall similarly be communicated to the subscriber by the Accounts Officer.
- 24. (1) As soon as possible after the 31st March of each year and after the Fund accounts have been audited by the Audit Officer, the Accounts Officer shall send to each subscriber a statement of his/her account in the Fund in the form set forth in Appendix V showing the opening balance as on the 1st April of the year, the total amount of deposits during the year and the closing balance on that date.

The Accounts Officer shall attach to the statement of account an enquiry whether the subscriber
 - (a) desires to make any alteration in any nomination made under para 4;
 - (b) has acquired a family (in cases where the subscriber has made no nomination in favour of a member of his/her family under the proviso to sub-para (1) of para (4).

- (2) Subscribers should satisfy themselves as to the correctness of the annual statement, and errors should be brought to the notice of the Accounts Officer within three months from the date of receipt of the statement. If no intimation is received from the subscriber within this/her period it shall be assumed that he has accepted the statement.
- (3) Where errors in the annual statement are brought to notice, it shall be the responsibility of the Accounts Officer to reconcile the same for settlement to the satisfaction of the subscriber.

SCHEDULE-B

Medical Attendance and Treatment including Reimbursement of Medical Expenses incurred by the Members of the Staff on themselves and their families

- 1 The provisions contained in this Schedule shall apply to all the employees of the Institute, but they shall not apply to -
 - (a) those members of the staff who are on leave or deputation abroad;
 - (b) retired members of the staff, and
 - (c) work charged staff, daily labourers and part-time employees.
- 2 For purposes of reimbursement of medical expenses, members of the staff shall be grouped as under:

Group-A

- (1) Employees of the Institute whose pay is not less than Rs.2,200/-* p.m. (pre-revised)¹

.. since revised to Rs.8,000/- consequent on revision of pay scales due to V Pay Commission's recommendations.

Group-B

- (2) Employees of the Institute whose pay is less than Rs.2,200/= but more than Rs.1,200/=*pm¹

.. since revised to Rs.4,000/- consequent on revision of pay scales due to V Pay Commission's recommendations.

Group-C

- (3) Employees of the Institute whose pay is less than Rs.1,200/=*

.. since revised to Rs.4,000/- consequent on revision of pay scales due to V Pay Commission's recommendations.

- 3 In this schedule, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context, -
- (a) "Authorised Medical Attendant" means Medical Officers listed in Appendix 1
 - (b) The term "Hospital" means the recognized hospitals listed in Appendix 2.
 - (c) The term "Family" shall mean wife or husband of a member of staff, as the case may be, and parents, children and step-children wholly dependent on the member of staff.
 - (d) The term "Leave" includes vacation.

- 4 Cost of reimbursement of expenses incurred by the members of the staff in connection with medical attendance and treatment of themselves and their families will be reimbursed in accordance with the scale prescribed by the Board from time to time.

Note: An advance for medical treatment in respect of a member of the staff or of his family who is an in-patient in a hospital may be granted on the same terms and conditions as are mentioned above.

- 5 (i) Medical attendance includes attendance at the residence of the member of the staff or at the consulting room of the Authorised Medical Attendance by arrangement with him.
- (ii) Medical treatment means use of all medical and surgical facilities available at the hospital in which the individual is treated and it includes -
- a) employment of such pathological, bacteriological, radiological, or other matters as are considered necessary by the Authorized Medical Attendant;
 - b) The supply of such medicines, vaccines, sera or other therapeutic substances as are ordinarily available in the hospital;
 - c) the supply of such medicines, vaccines, sera or other therapeutic substances as are not available in the hospital, but can be had in the State/State-aided hospital.
 - d) such accommodation as is ordinarily provided in the hospital and is suited to his status;
 - e) such nursing as is ordinarily provided to inpatients by the hospital;
 - f) specialist consultation on the advice of the authorised medical attendant;
 - g) it does not include diet or provision at the request of the member of the staff of accommodation superior to that to which he is entitled in accordance with sub-clause (d) above.

- Note: 1 Refund of the cost of preparations which are not medicines but are primarily foods, tonics, toilet preparations or disinfectants as issued by the Director General of Health Services from time to time is not admissible.
- 2 Refund in respect of mixtures prescribed by the Authorised Medical Attendant will be allowed till such time the Institute has its own dispensary.
- 3 In the case of hospitals the tariffs of which indicate a flat inclusive charge per diem, forty per cent thereof should be reckoned as charges for boarding and lodging. Out of this forty per cent, half should be considered as charges for diet and the other half for accommodation.
- 4 Diet charges paid at hospitals by the members of the staff drawing pay less than Rs.6,500/- (V Pay Commission) in the case of non-tubercular and tubercular diseases respectively are allowed. The cost of any special articles of diet not ordinarily provided by the hospital to its inpatients is, however, not refundable.

6. Dental treatment is not covered by the rules, but, if the diagnosis of the physiological or other disability from which a member of the staff is suffering indicates that teeth are the real source of disturbance, he is entitled to free dental treatment, provided it is of a 'major' kind, such as treatment of a jaw bone disease, wholesale removal of teeth, etc. It does not include scaling of teeth, treatment for Pyorrhoea and gingivitis or the free supply of artificial denture or treatment from a private dentist or outside the hospital, even on the advice of the Authorised Medical Attendant.
7. No reimbursement of expenses for provision of spectacles is admissible.
8. No reimbursement of charges for special nursing will be admissible, unless it is certified by the Authorised Medical Attendant and the Medical Superintendent of the hospital that their services were absolutely essential.

Note Such cases of special nursing will be decided on merits having regard to the nature of the disease and hardship involved. In such cases, a member of the staff should bear upto twenty-five per cent of his monthly pay for the period for which special nursing was necessary, the rest being borne by the Institute.

9. If the Authorised Medical Attendant is of opinion that the case of a patient is of such a serious or special nature as to require medical attendance by some person other than himself, he may
- (a) send the patient to the nearest Specialist or other Government Medical Officer, by whom, in his opinion, medical attendance is required for the patient, or

- (b) if the patient is too ill to travel, summon such Specialist or other Government Medical Officer to attend upon the patient.
- 10 A patient sent under clause (a) of paragraph 9 shall, on production of a certificate in writing by the authorised medical attendant in this behalf, be entitled to travelling allowance for the journeys to and from the headquarters of the Specialist or other Government Medical Officer.
- 11 A specialist or other Government Medical Officer summoned under clause (b) of paragraph 9 shall, on production of a certificate in writing by the authorised medical attendant in his behalf be entitled to travelling allowance for the journey to and from the place where the patient resides.
- 12 Travelling Allowance admissible under paragraph 9 shall be calculated as for a journey on tour but no daily allowance for halts will be admissible. If an escort be necessary on the advice of the authorised medical attendant, he may be paid travelling allowance as admissible under the Institute's T.A. Rules.
- 13 Where a member of the staff or a member of his family is entitled to treatment in a hospital free of charge under this Schedule, on the advice of the authorised medical attendant, any amount paid by him on account of such treatment shall, on production of such a certificate in the form prescribed by the Board of Governors in this behalf, be reimbursed to him by the Institute.
- 14 If the Authorised Medical Attendant is of the opinion that owing to the severity of the illness, a patient (member of the staff) cannot be given treatment at the authorised hospitals, the patient may receive treatment at his residence.
- 15 In the case of the individual receiving treatment at his residence referred to in paragraph 14 he shall be entitled to receive towards the cost of such treatment incurred by him a sum equivalent to the cost of such treatment as he would have been entitled, free of charge to receive under this Schedule if he had not been treated at his residence.
- Note: Claims for sums admissible under paragraph 15 shall be accompanied by a certificate in writing by the Authorised Medical Attendant stating that
- a) his reasons for the opinion referred to in paragraph 14 and
 - b) the cost of similar treatment referred to in paragraph 15.
- 16 Members of the staff and their families will also be entitled to the reimbursement of the expenses in connection with the treatment of tubercular diseases to the extent as is prescribed by the Board from time to time.
- 17 In the case of families of the members of the staff, the cost of special medicines (including mixture) will be reimburseable only when they are prescribed for the patient by the

- 16 Members of the staff and their families will also be entitled to the reimbursement of the expenses in connection with the treatment of tubercular diseases to the extent as is prescribed by the Board from time to time.
- 17 In the case of families of the members of the staff, the cost of special medicines (including mixture) will be reimburseable only when they are prescribed for the patient by the Authorised Medical Attendant when the patient is attended to either in the hospital or at the consulting room of the Authorised Medical Attendant or when the patient is undergoing treatment at the out-patients' department or as an in-patient of the hospital on the recommendation of the Authorised Medical Attendant.
- Note i) Family of a member of the staff accompanying him on duty, leave/vacation, may consult a Government doctor of the status of the Authorised Medical Attendant of the member of the staff as provided under item 4 to Appendix I for the member of the staff himself;
- ii) The concession contained in note (I) above is not to be given in a case where a member of the staff, while proceeding on tour, leave/vacation, takes a member of his family along with him with the intention of obtaining treatment in a place other than at his headquarters.
- 18 Charges for services rendered in connection with medical attendance and/or treatment of a member of the family or a member of the staff should be paid by him to the hospital authorities. The Institute will reimburse the cost of medical attendance and/or treatment on the production of the hospital bills, duly countersigned, save in the case of such bills of Government hospital by the authorised medical attendant.
- Note The Authorised Medical Attendant of the family or a member of the staff is the same as the Authorised Medical Attendant of the member himself.

TECHNICAL TEACHERS TRAINING INSTITUTE, CHENNAI-600 113

Rules Governing allotment/occupation of Residential Accommodation for staff of the Technical Teachers' Training Institute, Chennai

1. These Rules will apply in the matters of allotment occupation of quarters to the employees of the Institute
2. The Principal of the Institute shall exercise power of allotment/occupation under the rules.
3. In these rules unless the context otherwise requires:
 - i. Allotment means grant of licence to an Institute staff to occupy a house owned by the Institute for use by him as residence.
 - ii. "Allottee" means an employee of the Institute who has been allotted a quarters
 - iii. "Principal" means Principal of the Institute
 - iv. "Employee" means an employee of the Institute
 - v. "Emoluments" means pay including pension, if any.
 - vi. "Family" includes only the wife, or husband as the case may be, children, step children, parents brothers and sisters ordinarily residing with and wholly dependent on the employee.

Principal may relax the definition of the word 'Family'.
 - vii. Supervisor means "Building Supervisor/Power House Supervisor".
 - viii. "Fundamental Rules" means the Fundamental Rules made by Government of India for its employees.

- ix. "Institute" means the Technical Teachers' Training Institute, Madras
 - x. The Seniority of an employee for allotment of a particular type of residence counts from the date of entry into the particular post of a cadre held at the time of allotment provided that in determining the seniority, preference may be given to married staff by the Principal.
 - xi. "Sub-letting" includes sharing of accommodation with or without payment of rent but does not include a casual guest or members of the family as defined under clause 3 (vi): notwithstanding the above provision, Principal may on compassionate grounds, permit members of the family not covered by clause 3(vi) above to stay with an allottee for a specific period not exceeding a year at a time.
4. Members of the staff will, subject to the availability of quarters, ordinarily be eligible for different types of accommodation according to their pay and or status as indicated in the annexure.

In the event of quarters to which a member or staff is eligible not being available, the Principal may, at his discretion allot a lower type of accommodation, not, however, lower than one class below.

5. The allotment made by the Principal will be final.
- i. Every employee who desired to have an allotment, shall submit an application to the Principal, when called for.
 - ii. Every application shall be in such form as may be prescribed by the Principal and signed by the applicant and submitted through their heads of departments, who shall countersign and forward it to the Principal.
 - iii. An employee, may, if he so desires, apply for the allotment of accommodation of any class below the class to which he is entitled under rules in the application submitted in accordance with the provisions of the above rules.
 - iv. In no case, an employee who is eligible for a particular class of accommodation shall be allotted a higher class of accommodation even if such accommodation were available.

6. In every case, the allottee shall be deemed to be a licensee and not a tenant.
7. Quarters will be licensed according to seniority. Notwithstanding the above, Principal may license quarters to
 - a) essential categories as defined by the Committee appointed by Principal from time to time
 - b) of humanitarian grounds to be decided by the Principal.
8. If an employee fails to accept the licence/ offer of licence of a residence made to him under these rules within 7 days from the date of the issue of allotment order/offer or fails to move into that residence after acceptance within 10 days from that date ;
 - (a) he shall not be eligible for a fresh allotment under these rules for a period of one year from the date of original licence.
 - (b) he shall cease to draw HRA from the date of the issue of that licence
 - (c) he shall, in addition to any disciplinary or other action taken against him, further liable to be charged the full standard rent under F.R. 45(b) or 10 percent of his emoluments whichever is higher till such time as the quarters is reallocated”.
9. Employees to whom residences have been allotted may, with the approval of the Principal, exchange residences within the same class
10. If an allottee proceeds on Long leave or deputation he will be permitted to retain his accommodation for a period not exceeding three months. During the period of such retention, he will pay the same rent as he would have paid if he were on duty at the Institute.
11. If an allottee dies, the allotment shall be cancelled with effect from the date of vacation after such death or after three months whichever is earlier. During such occupation, the rent last paid by the deceased allottee shall become payable to the Institute.
12. If a licensee retires or resigns, the licence shall stand cancelled with effect from three months after the date of his retirement, resignation, on the date on which the residence is actually vacated, whichever is earlier.

13. Consequent on long leave, deputation, resignation, retirement, a licensee shall, before vacating the residence give not less than 30 days' notice in writing to the Principal. If he does not do so, he shall be responsible for payment of rent nor that period or the number of days by which the notice given by him falls short of 30 days from the date of vacation.
14. (i) No employee shall sublet or transfer a residence allotted to him or any portion thereof or any of the out houses, appurtenant thereto.
- (ii) The Licencee may entertain guests in his quarter for a period not exceeding three months. If, however, the period exceeds three months, specific approval of the Principal, shall be obtained. This restriction will not apply in the case of domestic help.
- (iii) If, however, an employee sublet or transfer a residence licenced to him or any portion thereof or any of the outhouses, appurtenant thereto he shall, without prejudice to any other action that may be taken against him, be charged the full standard rent of the residence under F.R. 45-B or 45-A whichever is higher for the period of subletting.
15. The liability for licence fee shall commence from the date of occupation of the residence or from the tenth day from the date of issue of licence order whichever is earlier.
16. The employee to whom a residence has been allotted shall be personally responsible for the rent thereof and for any damage beyond fair wear and tear caused thereto or to services provided therein during the period for which the residence has been and remains allotted to him.
17. An employee to whom a residence has been allotted shall not use the same for any purpose except for residence with his family and shall maintain the premises and the compound, if any, attached thereto in a clean and hygienic condition.
18. (i) An employee to whom a residence has been allotted shall not cause trees or shrubs in the premises to be cut down or lopped save with consent of the Principal.
- (ii) An allottee shall comply with any orders of the Principal for the time being in force in respect of the compound appurtenant thereto.

19. An allottee who commits any breach of these Rules or the terms and conditions of the allotment or uses the residence or permits the residence or premises to be used, for any purpose which the Principal considers to be improper, or conducts himself in a manner which in the opinion of the Principal is prejudicial to the maintenance of the harmonious relations with his neighbours, or of maintenance of peace or sanitation in the campus, or it is found that the employee has knowingly furnished incorrect information in any application or written statement with a view to securing the allotment, the Principal, may without prejudice to any other disciplinary action that may be taken against him.
- a) Cancel the allotment of that residence to him and
 - b) Declare him as ineligible for Institute accommodation.
- Provided that where the allotment of a residence is cancelled for breach of harmonious relations with the neighbours the employee may be allotted any other residence in the Campus.
20. For the purpose of this rule 'Improper Use' shall include
- a) Unauthorised addition to/or alteration of any part of the residence or premises.
 - b) Using the residence/premises or a portion thereof for purposes other than those for which they are meant; and
 - c) Unauthorised extension from electricity and water supply and other service connections or tampering therewith.
21. Where, after the cancellation of an allotment under any of these Rules, the residence remains or has remained in the occupation or custody of an employee to whom it was allotted or of any one claiming through him, then without prejudice to any other action that may be taken against him the full standard rent under F.R.45-B, or twice the standard rent under F.R.45-A, whichever is higher, may be charged for the period of such occupation, or custody.
22. Any allotment of a residence made immediately before the commencement of these Rules, shall be deemed to be an allotment duly made under these Rules notwithstanding that the employee to whom it has been allotted is not entitled to a residence of that class under these Rules, and all preceding provisions of these Rules shall apply in relation to that allotment and that employee accordingly.

23. The allottee shall personally be responsible for theft of or any damage to, beyond fair wear and tear, the building, fixtures, furniture, sanitary, fittings, electrical installations, fencing, etc. provided therein, during the period of his occupation of the quarters.
24. The allottee shall not make any additions or alterations to the buildings or tamper with fittings or electrical installations nor make any unauthorised construction or extension to the Electric or Water Supply lines, without specific permission of the Principal.
25. No cattle or poultry shall be kept in the premises maintained in the quarters or in the compound without previous permission of the Principal.
26. The allottee shall allow the maintenance staff of the Institute or the workers of authorised contractors to have access to the quarters at all reasonable hours to inspect the building, the water supply, sanitary or electrical installations, fixtures and furniture and to carry out such normal repairs thereto as the Supervisor may consider necessary for the proper maintenance of the quarters.
27. The allottee should see that no water is wasted by leakage in the water supply fittings or by careless or extravagant use by the occupants and shall forthwith report to the supervisor any damage to or defect in the building, fixtures and fittings, electrical installations or fencing and gates for necessary actions.
28. An application from an employee for use of a vacant residence for a period not exceeding seven days for ceremonial or religious purposes may be granted by the Principal on the applicants paying in advance the standard rent, for, such residences under F.R.45-A for the period of occupation and such service charges as may be decided by the Principal.
29. The Principal may reserve or set aside particular quarters or set of quarters for a specific purpose.
30. The household garbage should be deposited in a covered bin. On no account such garbage should be thrown in the premises, on the streets or kept exposed to the air.
31. (a) Any incidence of infectious disease in the quarters must immediately be reported to the Medical Officer of the Institute, and all precautions taken to prevent the spreading of the infection.

- (b) No inflammable materials should be stored in the quarters.
32. If the Principal is satisfied that the operation of any of these rules may cause undue hardship in a particular case, he may dispense with or relax that rule to such extent and under such conditions as he may consider necessary, and report the same to the Board at their next meeting.
 33. On any question of interpretation of these rules, the Principal's decision shall be final.
 34. The Principal shall appoint a Committee, to assist and recommend the allotment of quarters as and when vacancy arises.
